TEST INFORMATION:

The TEAS is a four hour multiple choice test of essential academic skills. You will be tested on Reading Comprehension, English, Math, and Scientific Knowledge. Calculators are not allowed on the exam.

The test will be offered in a paper-pencil based format.

TEAS test registration at CSUSB can be done in two ways:

1. Students may come in person to CSUSB. Pay the $55.00 test fee at the Bursar’s Office (UH-171), and bring their receipt to the Testing Office in UH 368.
2. Students may print out a registration form off the Testing Office website http://www-ugs.csusb.edu/testing/ then mail the registration for along with the $55.00 fee (check or money order ONLY payable to CSUSB) to:

   Undergraduate Studies
   5500 University Pkwy UH 352
   San Bernardino, CA 92407

The TEAS exam is set to be administered on Saturday, September 18, 2010.*

Registration for the TEAS will open on June 7, 2010

The registration deadline for TEAS candidates will be Thursday, September 9, 2010. The Testing Office will not accept late registration or offer standby testing.

CSUSB will not limit who may take the TEAS exam. However, students who are planning to attend another campus will be responsible for providing scores to their own University. The Testing Office does NOT transmit score reports to other institutions.

If alternate accommodations are required due to a disability, documentation must be submitted to the Testing Office when the appointment is made. You will be notified about alternate accommodations four days before the exam.

*Alternate day arrangements can be made for Saturday Sabbath observers with documentation from your Pastor. You must submit the request on church letterhead with your registration form by the registration deadline.
